

Seattle Storytellers Guild December StoryFest presents

Stories and Strings for Covid Times

With Storyteller Anne Glover of Victoria, B.C.

Friday, December 18th 5 – 6 pm (PST)

Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/y2lsf4r7>

Anne Glover's program for Seattle Storytellers includes a chicken that can't count, a voracious tiger, an old hag with breasts so long she flings them over her shoulders, greed, stupidity, wisdom, and luck, all woven together by mind-bending string figures and Anne's comedic sense of balance. Seattle will also be the first audience to hear Anne's original recitation, In Covid Times, written in an online course held last summer by St John's storytelling (Newfoundland). Much of the material is suitable for family audiences, but some stories will be more suited to a mature audience.

An “After Party” for members and friends of the Seattle Storytellers Guild will follow a dinner break at 7 – 8:30 PM. Use the same link!

“No potluck Desserts, but lots of Holiday Fun!”

For more information go to: seattlestorytellers.org