

We are coming up to springtime which means luck awakens!

Polite Kitty, aka Audra Sisak of the Seattle Storyteller Guild, will be hosting its March 2023 StoryFest event called "Luck of the Draw."

How do we combine an Autistic Comedian, a Yoga Instructor, a Martial Artist, and a Champion Liar into a single Storytelling Program?

Come to Luck of The Draw – a Seattle Storyteller's Guild StoryFest and find out!

On March 17th, 2023 at 7:00 PM Pacific time on Zoom

Audra is bringing in a fantastic line up of women and non-binary speakers talking about their experience with life and luck. It will leave the audience feeling a range of emotions with the backgrounds of these tellers.

Featuring Polite Kitty, Debbie Dixon, Wolf Heart and Shayne Larango

– each sharing stories to make this St. Patrick's Day memorable. They are sure to take you for a wild ride

Suggested Donations: $5-10.

About the Storytellers:

Polite Kitty = A comedic storyteller by nature. They tell about their life experiences as an autistic, disabled superparent with epilepsy, raising kids, hyper fixations, and dysfunctional family fun. A brilliant style of entertainment that leaves an audience participating and laughing!

Debbie Dixon = Debbie Dixon is the author of "The Path to Freedom Your guide to living the life of your dreams." as well as a Yoga teacher, Life Coach, and an Inspirational Speaker who leads transformational, healing retreats all over the world. Through her speaking, life coaching and workshops, she encourages people to step outside of their comfort zones and helps show them the way to a life filled with freedom, prosperity, joy, and infinite possibilities. Incorporating all she had learned on her path of self realization, she developed her "Realizing Your Dreams" programs and seminars where she informs people of the power of their thoughts. Now, igniting spiritual health in others has become her Life-long purpose.

Wolf Heart = They are an Autistic Agender and Indigenous (Taino) writer and martial artist of mixed decent first published in two high school poetry and writing compilations at the age of fifteen. They were collectively known as Bronx Expressions. They spent a portion of their young life as a vigilante helping strangers in need and fighting against predators and potential traffickers as a way of coping with trauma before becoming involved in various charity organizations including habitat for humanity and it's REstore operations and various organizations M.M.I.W.2S or missing and murdered Indigenous Women and Two Spirit Indigenous peoples. This includes helping the native Woman's Association of Canada and also exposing organizations like MMIW-USA who sought to embezzle donations for frivolous purposes.

Shayne Larango = Lucky Larango aka Shayne is a Story Teller and Grand Mother new to the Seattle area from Dallas. She is the 2018 Biggest Liar in Texas, 2019 Second Biggest Liar in Kendall County, and a featured Teller in the 2020 Texas Storytelling Festival that was shut down Friday due to covid; her stories were schedule for Saturday. As her favorite Irish bartender says, "That's Life!" Larango is available for civic events, political functions, and private parties.
