A Seattle Storytellers Guild StoryFest

Surviving Ty- Tales of a Well Intended Restless Soul with featured teller, Ty Fance

on Friday, February 19th, 2021 from 5:00 to 6:00 pm (Pacific Time)
Waiting Room opens at 4:30 – Admitting at 4:45 pm

Ty Fance is an Author/Producer/Storyteller originally from Houston, TX. Ty’s autobiographical stories features his journey into and through fatherhood; reflections on marriage; and his colorful childhood – rediscovered. His stories are also featured in his book of autobiographical short stories entitled – Off My Head and Over the Fence.

Ty produced a long running storytelling show called – Off My head – an lasting storytelling experience – which featured local storytellers sharing personal stories that are “sometimes funny, sometimes poignant, but always authentic and relatable”. More of Ty’s stories are at: https://www.facebook.com/ty.fance.

Please register in advance for the Zoom Program: https://tinyurl.com/y3m6soot
A Zoom link will be sent upon your Registration. You are welcome to invite friends, but please share the Registration link above, rather than the login link which you will be sent for this event.

A Suggested Donation of $5 or more helps support Seattle Storytellers Guild’s StoryFests and our featured Tellers!

Donations to The Seattle Storytellers Guild to help fund this event can be made:
Via our Donation Jar on our home page: seattlestorytellers.org
Via a link to Paypal - www.paypal.me/seattlestorytellers
Or you can mail a check to:
Seattle Storytellers Guild, PO Box 18361, Seattle, WA., 98118

For more information go to: seattlestorytellers.org